

Who is this for?

This qualification is typically delivered over a half day, or as a bolt on to a full First aid course. The intention is for learners to be able to support an individual with a severe allergic reaction.

This is perfect for those who are working with individuals who may require assistance in minimising the risk of a reaction and the administration of an adrenaline auto injector.

Key points

- Regulated qualification
- Written to UK Resuscitation council protocols
- 3 Guided learning hours (1/2 day)
- 5 hours Total qualification time
- Valid for 1 year
- Certificate included
- Assessed by MCQs and practical observation

Course content

This qualification has been developed to meet recognised training requirements and has been written to the UK resuscitation council protocols

- Primary survey
- Recovery position
- Adult CPR
- Child CPR
- Minimising the risk of a reaction
- Safe use of an autoinjector

Additional content can be added however additional time should be allocated.

Please contact us for details.